Brian Avery was seriously wounded in the face by the Israeli military in Jenin, Palestine in April 2003 while working with the non-violent, International Solidarity Movement supporting Palestinian civilians. He has been singled out for his "courage and resolve" in the 2004 ISM Nobel Peace prize nomination, along with Rachel Corrie and Tom Hurndall. This event will raise funds for his major upcoming surgeries.

$20 suggested donation for Brian's Medical Fund

Sponsored by: the Arab Jewish Peace Alliance and New Mexico ISM Support Group
